

Introduction to World Cinema (Night)

Steve Hunt

Call #13272

Tuesdays and Thursdays 9:30-11:18 in Knowlton Hall 250

This course will introduce students to the principal films, directors, and movements of World Cinema from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day. Emphasis will be on helping students acquire and develop the requisite skills for analyzing the formal and stylistic aspects of specific films, and on helping students understand those films in their social and historical contexts.
